IMPORTANT ACTS OF THE LATE LEGISLATURE.

AN ACT TO IMPROVE THE LAW OF EVIDENCE.

WHEREAS, The enquiry after truth in courts of justice is often obstructed by incapacities created by the present law, and it is desirable that full information as to the facts in issue, both in criminal and civil cases, should be laid before the persons appointed to decide upon them, and that such persons should exercise their judgment on the credit of the witnesses adduced, and on the truth of their testimony; now therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, as follows: That no person offered as a witness shall hereafter be excluded by reason of incapacity from interest or crime, from giving evidence, either in person or by deposition, according to the practice of the court, on the trial of any issue joined, or of any matter or question, or on any inquiry arising in any suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, in any court or before any judge, justice, jury, or other person having by law authority to hear, receive and examine evidence; and every person so offered shall be admitted to give evidence, notwithstanding such person may or shall have an interest in the matter in question, or in the event of the trial of the issue, or of the suit or other proceeding in which he is offered as a witness.

SEC. 2. On the trial of any issue, or of any matter or question or on any inquiry arising in any suit or other proceeding in court, or before any judge, justice, jury or other person having by law authority to hear and examine evidence, the parties and the person in whose behalf any suit or other proceeding may be brought or defended, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be competent and compellable to give evidence, either viva voce or by deposition, according to the practice of the court, in behalf of either or any of the parties to said suit or other proceeding.

SEC. 3. Nothing contained in the second section of this act shall render any person who, in any criminal proceeding, is charged with the commission of an indictable offence, competent or compellable to give evidence for or against himself, or shall render any person compellable to answer any question tending to criminate himself, or shall in any criminal proceeding render any husband competent or compellable to give evidence for or against his wife, or any wife competent or compellable to give evidence for or against her husband.

SEC. 4. Nothing contained in the second section of this act shall apply to any suit or other proceeding in any court of law or equity, instituted in consequence of adultery, or to any action for breach of promise of marriage or for criminal conversation, and nothing contained in the first section of this act shall apply to the attesting witnesses to wills.

AN ACT TO PREVENT WILFUL TRESPASSES ON LANDS, AND STEALING ANY KIND OF PROPERTY THEREFROM.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no person, after being forbidden to do so, shall enter on the premises of another without a license therefor; and if any person, after being thus forbidden, shall so enter, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. And if any person, not being the present owner or bona fide claimant of such premises, shall wilfully and unlawfully enter thereon, and carry off, or be engaged in the act of carrying off, any wood or other kind of property whatsoever, growing, or being thereon, the same being the property of the owner of the premises, or under his control, keeping or care, such person shall, if the act be done with felonious intent, be deemed guilty of larceny, and punished as for that offence. And if not done with such intent, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, however, that any person who may make a written affidavit before a justice of the peace of the county, that any of his cattle or other live stock, (which shall be specially described and set forth in such affidavit) has strayed away, and he has good reason to believe that it is on the premises of another or other persons, then such justice may, in his discretion, allow such person to enter on said premises with one or more servants, without firearms, in the day time, (Sunday excepted,) between the hours of sunrise and sunset, and make search for his estray for such limited time as to said justice shall appear reasonable; but the only effect of such license shall be to protect the persons entering, from indictment therefor, and then only, provided the license shall have been made bona fide, and without any damage except such as was necessary to conduct the search.

Ratified 2nd., day of February 1866.

AN ACT TO SECURE TO AGRICULTURAL LABORERS THEIR PAY IN KIND.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That whenever servants and laborers in Agriculture shall, by their contracts in writing, already or hereafter made, be entitled, for wages, to a part of the crops cultivated by them, such part shall not be subject to sale under executions, against their employers, or the owners of the land cultivated.

And, be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified the 2nd day of March, 1866.

AN ACT TO PUNISH PERSONS PURSUING AND INJURING HORSES AND OTHER LIVE STOCK, WITH INTENT TO STEAL THEM.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if any person shall pursue, kill or wound any horse, mule, ass, jenny, cattle, hog, sheep or goat, the property of another, with the intent unlawfully and feloniously to convert the same to his own use, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be punishable, in all respects, as if convicted of larceny, though such animal may not have come into the actual possession of the person so offending And all persons commanding, counselling, advising, aiding or abetting any of such unlawful acts, shall be punished in like manner, and may be prosecuted alone, or with the principal actor.

Ratified the 2nd day of March 1866.

AN ACT TO PUNISH VAGRANCY.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if any person who may be able to labor, has no apparent means of subsistence, and neglects to apply himself to some honest occupation for the support of himself and his family, if he have one; or, if any person whatever shall be found spending his time in dissipation, or gaming, or sauntering about without employment, or endeavoring to maintain himself or his family by any undue or unlawful means, such person shall be deemed a vagrant, and guilty of a misdemeanor. And it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace of the county wherein such persons shall be found, upon due proof of such offence, to issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender, to be brought before him or some other justice of the peace, whose duty it shall be, if, on examination, such person shall be found a vagrant, to recognize him with good security for his appearance, at the first Court to be held for said county, whether it be a Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions or a Superior Court, to answer such offence. And if he fail to give such recognizance, he shall be imprisoned until the session of said court: Provided, however, That if such offender shall, at the said Court, enter into a recognizance, in such sum as the Court shall prescribe, conditioned for his good behavior and industrious, peaceable deportment for one year, he may be discharged on payment of the costs and charges which shall have accrued: but, if he shall fail to enter in such recognizance, and pay such costs and charges, he shall be prosecuted as a vagrant, and upon conviction the Court shall fine or imprison him, or both, or sentence him to the workhouse for such time as the Court may think fit

Be it further enacted, That this act shall go into effect from and after its ratification.

Ratified 2nd day of March, 1866.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. R. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

The Veto Defeated.

Just as we go to press, the news reaches us that the Senate of the United States has passed the odious Civil Rights Bill over the veto of President Johnson. We announce this result with the profoundest concern. We have neither time nor space for comment.

The Conflict.

The government of the United States has officially and uniformly maintained that its sole object, in suppressing the revolution in the South, was to restore the authority of the government and the Constitution over the entire Union. The President truthfully affirms that this has been done, and that now the conflict must end. The sober sense of the nation must acquiesce in the wisdom, correctness and constitutionality of the President's position. He has sworn to defend the Constitution, and he stands up to it, and nothing will drive him from his purpose.

But the Radicals,—the same fell spirit which forced the South to revolt,—are not content.—They are resolved upon a conflict with the President, and nothing short of his utter discomfiture will satisfy them.

Already we have rumors of a most serious conflict between the President and the radical members of Congress. These rumors are not sufficiently authenticated to justify us in laying them before our readers. Perhaps, before this number reaches our readers, these pregnant rumors will either have been quieted or confirmed. In the meantime, the temper and declarations of the Radical press indicate the purpose of that faction to override the constitution and destroy the power of the President at all hazards.

The National Intelligencer and Journal of Commerce, two of the most conservative and reliable journals in the country, utter solemn warnings to the nation, that the Radicals are contemplating a bold revolutionary movement against the President. The Chicago Tribune, an utter radical paper, advocates vehemently the impeachment of the President and his removal from office. But, thank Heaven! he stands, and will stand, as a breakwater to the Constitution, against the furious rage of party malevolence and vindictiveness, which controls the Stevens-Sumner faction of the country.

The nation has passed through tempestuous seas—the Republic has been put to the test of the severest trials, but, if possible, a still greater one awaits it, originating in the demoniacal spirit of ultra-abolitionism, which has already deluged the land in blood. Let the Southern people remain firm in their devotion to the President and his policy. Let them be calm, but confident in his success in battling for the Constitution. Let his policy be punctiliously observed in all respects by the Southern people. Let us avoid all collision among ourselves, and all sources of alienation from him—all departures from the spirit and letter of the Constitution—all violations of the written and common law; and let a sacred regard to our pledges, a quiet submission to authority and a uniform devotion to the Union, mark the whole course of the Southern people.

If the Radical agitators prefer war to peace—agitation, turmoil and ruin, to quiet and the peace of the nation, let it be known that the entire South ranges herself on the side of the President, the Constitution and the Union!

Release of Citizens.

We are advised from Washington, that Monroe Davis and Thos. Wilford, citizens of North Carolina, who were recently sentenced by a military commission to four months' imprisonment, have been released by order of the President.

We presume that, under the late decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, that military commissions have no legal jurisdiction to try civilians, all such, who have, at any time since the termination of hostilities, been thereby convicted and imprisoned or fined, will be at once discharged from custody and will have their fines remitted. For instance, Mrs. Ball, we suppose, will be immediately released, and the fine imposed upon Mr. Waring, of the Charlotte Times, and paid by him, be returned.

It will be well for all, having friends or relatives in either of the above categories, or for the parties themselves, to make prompt application to the proper authority for relief in the premises.

This decision of the Supreme Court further settles the question that Mr. Davis can only be tried before a civil tribunal,

"The President has repeatedly said that no man should be appointed or elected to office in the Southern States who is not thoroughly loyal. Indeed, he has gone so far as to say that all persons appointed or elected should be such as "have never faltered in their allegiance to the government."—Standard, April 7, 1866.

The first clause of the above paragraph is true. We most heartily and entirely approve of and sustain the President in that position.—No man, of doubtful loyalty to the government, should hold office of any kind or at any time, and especially now. But the second member of the paragraph is untrue and misrepresents the President. The Standard had in its possession the exact words of the President, and ought to have quoted his entire language on the point. The following is the President's language in a telegram to Gov. Holden, bearing date Aug. 22d, 1865.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 22, 1865.

Governor Wm. W. Holden, Raleigh, N. C.:

Information comes to me that reports are freely circulating in influential quarters, and where, without contradiction, they are calculated to do harm, to the effect that in appointments to office, and in the recommendations for appointments, the true Union men are totally ignored, and the provisional Governors are giving a decided preference to those who have participated in the rebellion. The object of such representations is to embarrass the government in its reconstruction policy; and while I place no reliance in such statements, I feel it due to you to advise you of the extended circulation they have gained, and to impress upon you the importance of encouraging and strengthening to the fullest extent the men of your State who have never faltered in their allegiance to the government. Every opportunity should be made available to have this known and understood as your policy and determination. Acknowledge the receipt of this telegram.

ANDREW JOHNSON.
President of the United States.

Now, upon any fair construction, can the above language of the President be forced to mean what the Standard says it does? The President most clearly means to say, that Provisional Governors, in making appointments to office or in recommending appointees, must not overlook or set aside the claims of those who have never faltered in their allegiance to the government. In this the President is correct. We have never known an instance in North Carolina, where the people have ignored the claims of men who have never faltered in their allegiance to the government, who were known to be men fully entitled to their confidence. No man has been ostracised, because he uniformly maintained his allegiance to the U. S. government. Where they have not been chosen to office, it has been because of some other reason. But the above declaration of the President has no reference to a free choice of the people. All he has demanded of the Southern people, has been, to choose men of undoubted loyalty.—And, in this regard, they have complied with his wishes to the fullest extent, so far as they were capable of judging of the loyalty or disloyalty of persons who were candidates for office.

The Proclamation.

We are glad to find that the views we have expressed as to the effect of the great Proclamation, in abrogating military tribunals and restoring the privileges of Habeas Corpus, are sustained, so far as we have seen, by the concurrent construction of the entire Northern press.

The New York World puts the matter in a very clear light.

It says: "By President Lincoln's proclamation of September 15, 1863, suspending the writ of habeas corpus, it was declared that "this suspension shall continue throughout the duration of such rebellion, or until this proclamation shall by a subsequent one, to be issued by the President of the United States, be modified or revoked."—We have quoted this for its explicit recognition of the right of the President to do what President Johnson has now done.

By this Proclamation, the Southern States are placed in precisely the same legal condition in which they stood previous to the war.—If their relations to the federal government have been temporarily suspended or interrupted, it was solely by the existence of rebellion; but that being now officially declared at an end, all the constitutional rights of the insurgent States revert. Those States can hereafter be subjected to no exceptional disabilities without a plain and palpable violation of the Constitution, as completely without legal excuse as would be the infliction of similar disabilities on Massachusetts or New York.

The Herald observes:

"The proclamation has the force of law. By it all the civil rights of the people within the States lately in rebellion are restored to them. No military or any other authority, except the regular civil authority, has any more power over the people of these States than over us in New York. Congress may do whatever it chooses as to admitting members from these States, or may go so far as to resolve that they are not in the Union; but this would not alter the fact. The Executive declares that they are not only in the Union, but that, the insurrection being ended, they are entitled to the full enjoyment of all the rights that citizens of the other States are. The President not only asserts that there is no longer any necessity for withholding these rights, but he believes it would be injurious to the country, if not dangerous, to do so. The language of the proclamation is very clear and emphatic on this point.

The whole country will rejoice at the official declaration that war and insurrection and all the consequences of these—such as martial law, the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, and civil disabilities of every kind—are "at an end." The South will lift up its head in hope, will have the strongest motive for loyalty, and will soon learn to forget its animosities under the liberty, glory, prosperity and grandeur of the Union. Congress cannot long keep the Southern people unrepresented. In the meantime they have all the rights and privileges we have. Let them wait patiently, then; show their loyalty and preserve order, and go to work in earnest to develop the resources of their rich country. There is no necessity for grumbling now. Through the wise and generous policy of Andrew Johnson they have reached the point of restoration of their civil rights. Congressional representation will follow. In a few years they may be richer and happier than ever. This proclamation is the end of their disabilities and the beginning of a great future."

GOLD closed in New York on the 6th., at 127¼. Cotton declining, with sales of 1200 bales at 38 and 39 cents.

South Carolina---Education of the Freedmen.

We have heretofore inadvertently omitted to notice the fact that, at a recent general council of the Episcopal diocese of South Carolina, a resolution was adopted appointing a Board of Missions to the freedmen of that State. This board will consist of three clergymen and three laymen, of whom the bishop will be ex officio chairman, and whose duty will be the management of the mission enterprise. We append such of the resolutions as develop the details of this missionary scheme:

"That this board do consider the expediency of organizing churches and congregations, consisting in whole or in part of colored people, under such regulations as to them may become advisable, and as may be consistent with the constitution and canons of the church in this diocese.

"That this board be urged to take early action to establish and maintain parochial schools for the secular and religious instruction of the colored people in our cities, towns and parishes, to be conducted by teachers, male and female, of our own communion, and under the supervision of the clergy within whose cures said schools may be established—the industrial feature being engratted thereon whenever practicable.

"That this board be authorized and requested to search out and take by the hand any of this class who may be desirous of preparing for the sacred ministry of our church, to whose capacity and moral and spiritual fitness their pastors may testify, and to provide for their education and training at schools or seminaries, by and with the sanction and approval of the bishop.

"That wherever churches, parsonages, glebe, or other church property in the several parishes are no longer occupied or needed by the white members of our church, and can be made available for any of the aforesaid objects, the duty and expediency of so applying the same be respectfully urged upon the legal representative of such churches or property.

"That the expediency be submitted to the board of appointing forthwith a missionary agent to visit the several parishes and other precincts of the diocese, where the colored people may be congregated, to ascertain their general condition, wants and wishes; to collect all information pertaining to the work; to report, from time to time, to the board, or through some church periodical, and to solicit pecuniary aid within, and, if found necessary, beyond the diocese."

It is not probable that this action will ever see the light through the Radical papers. On the contrary, they will persistently shut their eyes to it, and will continue to flood the public with harrowing accounts of the brutal treatment of a nameless negro by an anonymous Southerner in some unknown locality.

The example thus so properly set by the Episcopal Church in our sister State, we may add, is being followed up by that and the other Churches in the other Southern States. Measures are being generally adopted, as the various denominations assemble in council, conference or convention, for the education and evangelization of the colored race.

The Chicago Times (one of the ablest and most fearless journals in the country, by the way,) expresses the hope that the Southern people will continue the work. It says that, by doing so, they may throw a good many New England school marms out of business; but what will be the Puritan's loss will be the freedman's gain. The Puritan missionary teaches the poor freedman more about Plymouth rock than the Rock of Ages. He learns much of the infallibility of the Puritans, but nothing of the infallibility of true Christianity. God's law, as interpreted to the negro by the Puritan missionary, is "higher law;" and the cardinal principles of salvation become a profession of faith and a faith in protection and the Radical ticket.

This is not what the negro wants. He needs to be instructed in the religion instituted by the "meek and lowly Jesus;" and this, it is scarcely necessary to add, is as little known among the extreme fanatical portion of the New England population, as fetichism is among the Quakers of Pennsylvania.

NORTH CAROLINA POLITICS.—The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard says that Gov. Worth, of that State, appoints none but rebels to office, and that he has gone over fully to the disloyal faction.—New York Evening Post.

If the Evening Post knew how much value is attached to declarations of that character by the Standard in North Carolina, it would be more chary in its references to them. Gov. Worth would no sooner appoint to office a disloyal man, than President Johnson, or any other cool, sober, sensible man, would. The Post betrays its ignorance of North Carolina loyalty, by giving the slightest credence to what the Standard may say upon that subject.

Connecticut.

The final returns are fully in, and exhibit a substantial triumph of the Conservatives in Connecticut. The Radical papers make little show of triumph over the result, although they secure their Governor and maintain their control of the Legislature, and with right. The Republican majority of eleven thousand and thirty-five, (11,035,) with which Buckingham beat Seymour last year in a contest for the same office, has dwindled down to a paltry five hundred and nine votes; and in the Legislature the Democrats count a gain of between thirty-five and forty—not enough, indeed, for any party advantage, but enough to show that the great tide of fanaticism is at its flood.

Texas.

The State of Texas is omitted from the benefits of President Johnson's proclamation, for the reason, we suppose, that its new State government is not yet organized. Its constitutional convention has but just completed its work; the election of State officers, the assembling of the Legislature, and the passage of the laws necessary to restore the State to the harmonious relations with the federal government, are yet to take place. As soon as this work is completed, and the President has due official notice thereof, a separate proclamation will be issued declaring the insurrection at an end in that State.

UPON our first page, this morning, will be found several important acts of the late Legislature. We shall give others to-morrow.

[From the National Intelligencer.]

The Temple of Janus Closed---End of the Great Civil War.

In another column will be found, under the great seal of the Republic, that glorious evangel to which have turned through anxious and agonized years the indestructible good will which passion and strife can supplant for a time in the bosom of man, but which returns as soon as the unnatural ascendency of malevolence is broken. The war is over. Peace has come.

Here it seems fitting to take a retrospect and a prospect. At this precise juncture, let us consider what is actual and cognate through this wilderness, this world, this chaos of contention, discussion, and passion.

1. There has been a civil war. What was it essentially? We answer, it was resistance to the law. The motives of resistance have much to do with the choice of the best expedients for overcoming it; but for the present we speak only to the fact. Resistance to law may be by one man, or by a thousand of men, or by a million of men. The difference is, of course, very great; but it will be found to have regard to the question of the practicability and the methods of suppressing contumacy, and the motives of the insurgents will be of no other significance than as affording criteria for the proper course to be taken in the premises. Now, if we are consistent thus far, it follows that when all resistance to law has ceased, the motives of the insurgents are no longer in question. In other words, when an insurrection has been raised, and has been put down, or, what is the same thing, when people who had once a motive to resist law have now none, but a motive to obey law, then, as far as the law is concerned, there is an end to the whole matter.

2. But during the civil war there occurred great changes. The motives of men toward government, as toward all external things, change with circumstances. The political, social, industrial and educational conditions of a people pretty nearly exhaust the list of sources of their motive for public action. But in all these respects, the people of the Southern States of the Union have undergone a complete change of conditions, and, consequently, of motives.—The question, therefore, on this point would be, whether the change is likely to have multiplied or energized the motives of that people to take up arms against the law. The statement of this question carries a negative answer to the mind of every reasonable man. If it be settled, then, that the motives which inspired a rebellion have passed away with it, and, also, that, from the extent of the changes, new motives will be equally strong, but will, from their nature, be the opposite of the old motives, we think it safe to say not only that all contumacy toward the law has ceased in the South, but that the most ample assurance for perpetual loyalty is given, not in private professions of sentiment, or even in solemn public bodies and authentic statutes—all, however, to the like effect—but in the very laws of the human constitution,—Therefore, in the moral and political aspects, there is an end to the whole matter.

3. But the practical relations of the people of the South to the General Government and to their brethren of the North, under the Constitution, are not yet restored. We have seen that there is an end to resistance to law—an end to the motives for such resistance—and a rising of new motives for obedience hereafter. The practical relations referred to cannot therefore remain interrupted by reason of rebellion, in any sense. Why are they still interrupted? If it were from resistance to the law, the courts would be disobeyed and executive officials defied. But, on the contrary, the Executive, throughout all the ramifications of his authority in the South, is cheerfully obeyed. The courts, too, are enforcing their unarmed decrees, to whomsoever directed. If there is no hindrance to the execution of the laws, how else do the Southern people hinder the "practical relations?" We know of no other way that they are doing it—nay, we cannot conceive of any other way for them to do it. It cannot, therefore, be from the South that the present hindrance comes. Two of the three great branches of the Government have re-established with perfect harmony their practical constitutional relations toward all the people, and we have seen that as far as action in the South is concerned, there is no hindrance from that quarter. But this interruption is just like that which was made in 1860. It was made mainly in the halls of Congress by members. The fact that in the past case the workers of the mischief caused the interruption by going out of Congress, and in the present case by keeping others out, shows the difference of the circumstances; but the consequences which constitute the object being precisely the same, there is a substantial identity of the crime. In both cases the persons who acted placed their justification upon alleged rights of the people of the South; in one, on the pretence that the white people were to be oppressed; in the other, that it is the negroes. In both, the conditions and circumstances which were thought to threaten the rights in question were novel and entirely prospective, and the fearfully hazardous remedies purely hypothetical. But in both, as in all the popular agitations of history, the prime cause was and is the mere love of power in the persons who conduct the abominable scheme of revolution.

4. Thus much for the past and the present of this war of bitter memory. Let us consider the future a moment.

There are two theories of the present status of the common Republic, which are well epitomized under the respective terms "restoration" and "reconstruction." Restoration implies (1) an approved integral system; (2) a disturbance of it; and (3) the subsequent removal of the disturbances constituting the condition of being restored, i. e., the Union, the Constitution, and the laws obstructed, the obstruction removed, and their operation resumed, in all their integrity, as before. On the other hand, the word "reconstruction" implies no approved system to be revived. On the contrary, it implies disapproval of the previous system, a willing acquiescence in its subversion, and a condition of political plasticity, in which the architecture of government is all to plan and build over again. In plain words, "reconstruction" now means just what it did in 1860 when the secessionists invented it, and when, in the mouths of specious and artful demagogues kindred to the present ones, it meant tearing the Union to pieces and building it up again to suit themselves. The Union was constructed by our fathers. It was so well constructed that millions of our people went forth to pour out their blood to save it. They did save it. What was it that they saved? A Union made or a Union hypothecated? The Union they were bred under, or the Union their orators might invent? To reconstruct the Union is to destroy the Union first. A reconstructionist is a traitor.

5. But, on the other hand, if restoration is the principle of loyalty to the Union, the important question arises, whether there is now anything more to restore. If restoration is complete, so far as law and government are related to citizens and subjects, then a body of public agents who should refuse to act, within the sphere of their delegated functions, on the basis of such an actual condition of political integrity, but should persist in acting on a pretended condition, would—if such actual condition were authoritatively or notoriously declared—be notoriously in a posture of revolution. Will Congress be in that posture if they longer persist in refusing to exercise their official functions for the admission of representatives from a portion of the States?

There never was any trouble pertinent to the duties of legislatures and ministers of government but obstruction to the execution of the laws and the tremendous incidents of its vast magnitude. All that trouble has passed away. The Executive has now solemnly proclaimed the fact, of which, from the nature of the Executive function, on familiar principles of law, he is the sole judge. All legislative, executive, and judicial authorities are bound and concluded by his decision, as to the fact of restoration to loyalty. Will Congress refuse to be concluded by his decision? On the other hand, if legal, political, governmental loyalty is restored, on what assumption could that body persist in keeping the country in a state of disunion?

The issue is, we think, at last approaching. A crisis must soon come. Is the Union destroyed, or is Congress revolutionized? Time, a short time, must show.

"Andrew Johnson was himself an unqualified Union man throughout the entire rebellion. He made his last great speech for the Union in Jonesborough, in May, 1861, and then fled to save his life."—Standard, April 7, 1866.

"Andrew Johnson made his escape from Tennessee, in a close buggy, with three armed guards. He ought to be caught ere he reaches Abram's bosom."—Standard, June 26, 1861.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 5.—The schooner Fanny, hence for Turks Island, returned with four feet of water in her hold and halt her cargo thrown overboard.

The committee, sent two months since to look into the reported guerrilla depredations in Morehouse and Carroll parishes, has returned, having found all quiet in those localities.

The Red River navigation is excellent, and cotton boats are bringing down much cotton.

A large number of Virginians and Tennesseeans are here. The people of the late Confederacy are all trading with the South.

The Southern Methodist Conference sittings are largely attended.

The Episcopal Convention assembles May 17th to elect a successor to Bishop Polk.

The Grand Jury report all the asylums in a prosperous condition, containing six hundred orphan children and forty insane persons. The Parish Prison contains two hundred prisoners.

The week's mortality was one hundred and four. There are few fevers and no epidemic.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

New Advertisements.

JESSE BROWN WITH HART & LEWIS.—Announces a new and extensive importation of Hardware, Cutlery and House Furnishing Goods. This is one of the most complete and superior establishments of the kind we have ever had in this City. Without designing any disparagement to similar houses, we may say that the firm is, in all respects, a most reliable one.—Mr. Brown, the agent, has had a long experience in the business, and knows what is needed and what is good in his line. His assortment of Cutlery, if any discrimination can be made in the general excellence of his entire stock, is particularly select.

THOS. SMITH, Petersburg.—Has removed to No. 25, Sycamore street.

ALBERT JOHNSON, General Superintendent.—Advertises a large lot of old steel, in lots to suit purchasers.

RALEIGH AND GASTON RAIL ROAD.—Close connections with the North and South. Quick time, cheap freights, &c.

"BUSHYHEAD."—This Cherokee chief has returned from Washington,—having been successful in having the claim of his people allowed.—They will draw the annual interest due them for the last six years, about $12,000 in all, some time in May.

8TH REGULAR INFANTRY.—Six companies of this command arrived in this City, on Friday night. A portion of them are to take the place of the volunteer troops now on duty here, and the remainder, we presume, will be stationed at other points in the State.

REV. GEORGE M. EVERHART, one of the Editors of the Church Intelligencer, announces his withdrawal from all connection with that journal. His precarious health compels him to seek for change of air and scene in European travel. The paper will hereafter be conducted under the sole Editorial auspices of Rev. F. M. Hubbard,—one of the most accomplished writers and scholars in the State.

CHARLOTTE CERTAINLY A CITY.—The following is the result of the vote, in Charlotte, on the adoption of the new Charter: Whole number of votes 119; for adoption 112; for rejection 7.

TO BE MUSTERED OUT.—We learn, from the Salisbury papers, that the troops now at that place are to be mustered out, and that they will probably be succeeded by regulars.

THE TOURNAMENT in Wilmington came off on the 5th. Mr. Edward Everett, "Knight of the Highlands," was the victor, having taken the ring four times out of five.

Messrs. Roger Cutler, "Knight of the White Plume"; W. A. Martin, 'Knight of Hanover,' and A. Devane, "Knight of Cape Fear," each took the ring twice out of five trials. There was no exhibition of "treason" upon the occasion.

Proceedings of Congress

WASHINGTON, April 5.

SENATE.—The credentials of Mr. Edmonds, successor to the late Mr. Foot, of Vermont, were presented and the Senator was sworn in.

The Civil Rights bill was warmly discussed. Mr. Reverdy Johnson made a powerful argument in support of the veto. The vote will probably be taken to-morrow.

HOUSE.—Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, asked, but failed to obtain unanimous consent to introduce a resolution referring to the proclamation of the President implicating Jefferson Davis and others in the murder of Mr. Lincoln, and instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire whether there is any probable cause to believe that the persons thus implicated are guilty, and if so, whether any legislation is neccessary on the part of Congress to bring them to a speedy and impartial trial.

The Dodge-Brooks case was resumed.

Action of the Canadian Government.

TORONTO, C. W., April 5.—The order for disbanding the volunteers has been rescinded, and troops are still being sent to the frontier. There is a great deal of mystery in this matter. The government professes to intend to muster men out, yet, under cover of night, they send new companies to the frontier. Last night four companies arrived at midnight in this city; this morning there were no signs of them, and the authorities refuse to tell where they went to.

Town Election in Delaware.

SAULSBURY, DEL., April 6.—In the town election held here yesterday the entire Democratic ticket was elected by fifty-one majority. This is a decided Democratic gain. Party lines were strictly drawn for and against the Administration.

[Special Correspondence of the New York Times.]

WASHINGTON, April 5, 1866.

Hon. Alex. H. Stephens had an interview with the President to-day and one with the Secretary of State. Both interviews were of the most cordial and pleasant nature. The President expressed great satisfaction at the presence of Mr. Stephens in Washington, and said that he anticipated much good to result from the influence of Mr. Stephens with the Southern people. Mr. Stephens has been called upon to-day by many Senators and Representatives, Republicans as well as Democrats. He has made a most favorable impression upon all, and his cheering accounts of the condition of public feeling in Georgia have had a most happy effect.

"CONSCIENCE MONEY."—General Spinner, United States Treasurer, is almost daily receiving "conscience money" from unknown sources. On Saturday last he received $12.50 from a former officer of the army, subscribing himself "A Troubled Conscience," who states that during the war he stole a certain sum of money from the Government, which he intends to return from time to time in instalments. The amount received from this source during the past year amounts in the aggregate to above $25,000.

Damascus is the oldest city in the world.—Tyre and Sidon have crumbled on the shore; Baalbec is a ruin; Palmyra lies buried in the sands of the desert. Nineveah and Babylon have disappeared from the shores of the Tigris and the Euphrates. Damascus remains what it was before the days of Abraham—a centre of trade and travel, an island of verdure in a desert.

GENERAL NEWS.

Exciting rumors were current among the Fenians in New York, on the 6th. Two expeditions, one consisting of three iron steamers, carrying three thousand men, and the other of two steamers, with twenty-five hundred soldiers on board, were reported to have sailed for Bermuda, which, it was stated, was to be taken possession of and used as a base for the final expedition against Ireland. Other vessels are reported to have sailed from various ports in the United States, all bound for Bermuda. Altogether, there was quite a ferment in Fenian circles over the new warlike movement supposed to be under way.

The election in Rhode Island passed off very quietly on the 5th. General Burnside was elected with little opposition. The remainder of the ticket nominated by the republicans was equally successful, twenty-eight of the new Senators being of that party to five democrats, and the Assembly sixty-five republicans to seven democrats. The vote was very light.

At an election for aldermen and other local candidates held in St. Louis on Tuesday last, the conservative ticket headed "In favor of President Johnson's policy—Against Negro equality," was successful over the radical one by a majority of three thousand.

The Senators elect from Colorado having satisfied the Radicals that they are sound and can be trusted, it has been decided by them to admit them without delay. Their votes, it appears, are necessary in order to secure a two-thirds vote on any measure they wish to carry over the President's veto. Senator Wade, who opposed the admission of Colorado, will now advocate her admission.

The Radicals indulge in no enthusiasm over the success of Hawley and the anti-administration ticket in Connecticut. The majority is too small for much shouting. Forney calls the result in his paper "a complete defeat of the administration, and a veto by the people of Connecticut on the President."

A Republican Senator remarked on the 5th., that he was well assured a proclamation of universal amnesty would soon be issued.

Rev. Dr. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, is out in a letter against colored suffrage.

The cholera is abating its ravages in France.

Thirty-six guns were fired in New Haven on the 3d inst. by the Democratic Committee, for the President's proclamation of peace.

Henry Ward Beecher compares the radicals in Congress to monkeys in a cocoanut tree, pelting the President from a safe distance.

Madame Lind-Goldschmidt is now at Cannes, where her health has much improved. She had, with her usual generosity, agreed to sing at a concert for the benefit of a local hospital.

A ritualistic clergyman in Exeter has asserted from the pulpit that the rinderpest was sent to remind us of fasting in lent, and that we shall be compelled from famine to fast in lent, 1867.

The Cork Examiner says that in the south of Ireland the constabulary are resigning in large numbers, in consequence of the inadequacy of their pay, and are emigrating chiefly to Australia.

GOV. Dillingham has appointed George F. Edmunds, of Burlington, to the Senatorial vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. Solomon Foot.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 5.—The Banking house of Messrs. Ward & Brother suspended this morning, after a three days run upon them. They believe they will be able to meet all demands.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Messrs. Beatley Bros. & Co., suspended to-day. Their failure is attributed to a large issue of bills on forged documents.

They had a baby convention in Muscatine, Iowa, the other day. Fifteen mothers with their little ones were present, and voted on the question of the prettiest. Each baby got one vote and no more.

The Miantonomah, the fleetest and most powerful of our ironclads, has been ordered to get ready for a curise off the fishing banks of New Foundland, to protect the interests of American fishermen there.

The Texas Convention has passed a law making five years' residence in the State a necessary qualification to vote.

The State election will take place in Texas on the fourth Monday in June. The Legislature will meet on the first Monday in August.

By order of the Mayor of the city of New York the flags on the public buildings were hung out in honor of the declaration of peace by the President.

A negro named Pepper has been arrested in Alabama for grossly insulting a white woman. A penitentiary should be the pepper-box for that black Pepper.

All the negro troops in the military department of Mississippi have been ordered to rendezous at Jackson, in that State, for the purpose of being mustered out of the United States service.

A dry goods firm which started in business in New York January first, with $300,000 capital, has just failed, the capital having been exhausted, and the firm finding itself $300,000 in debt.

A Remarkable Case.

DISEASE IN WHICH THE LUNGS AND THROAT ARE INVOLVED.—Mrs. Phebe Perkinson, Petersburg, Va., (Aug. 26, 1855,) says: "I hereby certify, that two years ago last June, I was afflicted with a disease commonly called the Breast Complaint, the pain and weakness in the breast continued to increase so that I could not bear my clothes fastened on me for the space of two years; I found great difficulty in breathing; a general debility prevailed over my whole system—so much so, that I could not walk up the steps without drawing myself up by the banister; had a continued hacking cough, which distressed me greatly, four times during my illness had Hemorrhage of the Lungs. All medical treatment failed to afford me relief; it was the opinion of my friends that I must die with the consumption; I was advised to use the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS; after using three boxes, strictly according to directions, I find myself in the enjoyment of perfect health; I have a good appetite, have become as fleshy as I ever was, sleep sound and pleasant, and can perform any duty with as much strength and vigor as I ever did. They certainly have acted like a perfect charm on me."

☞ For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 per dozen. Address, Passage of the Civil Rights Bill Over the President's Veto!

MODIFICATION OF THE TEST OATH RECOMMENDED!!

Mr. Brooks of New York Ousted!!

CAPT. SEMMES RELEASED.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The Civil Rights bill was passed yesterday over the veto of President Johnson, and resulted in the most uproarious demonstrations of delight by the Republicans.

The vote stood 33 to 15.

The excitement is intense.

The President transmitted to Congress, on yesterday, a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General, suggesting a modification of the test oath.—They show the great importance of such legislation on the oath in a pecuniary and harmonizing point of view, and thePresident earnestly commends the subject to the early consideration of Congress. It was referred to the committee on the judiciary.

In the House, Mr. Brooks, of New York, like Stockton, of New Jersey, was ousted and the seat given to his contestant, Mr. Dodge.

Yesterday, by order of the President, Admiral Raphael Semmes, late of the Confederate navy, was released on the original parole given under the Johnson—Sherman convention.

The New Jersey Legislature has adjourned without electing a Senator.

IN OPENING THE

SPRING TRADE,

I would return my most grateful thanks to the citizens of Petersburg and the surrounding country for the very liberal patronage extended the past season, and hope to merit its further continuance by holding out still further inducements.

My present facilities are beyond doubt unequalled, and no effort will be spared to place before our patrons Goods that the present market value will admit of, and in many instances much below, as we are constantly represented at the large auction sales, where goods are frequently sold much less than cost of importation. These, with

Many Other Available Facilities,

I pledge myself to use to the best interest of our customers.

The stock is now much larger and better assorted than at any time previous, having added a complete assortment of

HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS,

Among them the most elegant

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLIA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonym us with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is needless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

RALEIGH, 1866.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15. 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527 895 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,344 33.

In Raleigh a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.

CIRCULAR.

The Co-partnership of G. W. DEEMS & C. F. DEEMS has been dissolved, by mutual consent, and the business of manufacturing the Southern has gone into the hands of G. W. DEEMS, the discoverer, who has removed to Baltimore, Md., where he can have access to the purest and best Medicines, on the most favorable terms. He will always keep on hand a large supply, and will sell to his customers, wholesale and retail, at the shortest notice.

Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been circulated so extensively, they need no recommendation—their merits are so well known by their results.

We thank our customers for the liberal patronage given us heretofore, and hope they will continue to favor us by sending their orders to G. W.
